AR. MANJUNATH C N

Manjunath CN | Founder | Principal Architect

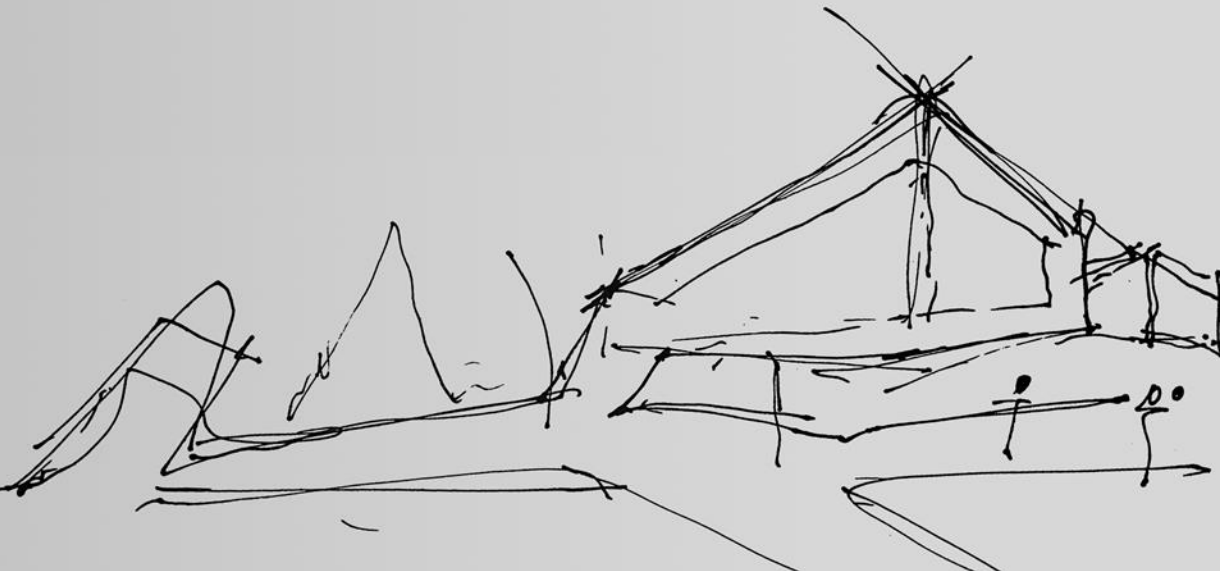

Manjunath CN graduated from Siddaganga School of Architecture (SSA), Tumkur, Karnataka. Right after his internship, he started working as an architect for a UNESCO sponsored project in Hampi. After completion, his professional life began by working with Edgar DeMello. With his acquired skills and knowledge through the years, he founded SWS in 2012.

Manjunath CN has been an active member of the architectural fraternity and an educationist for years. He was a visiting faculty at SPA (School of Planning and Architecture), Vijayawada and now at SSA (Siddaganga School of Architecture), & is a part of the selection committee of Anna University, Architecture dept, Chennai. Being a young active member of the Architectural fraternity, he is regularly invited as a member of juries and for architectural reviews at several revered architectural institutes such as SSA, DSCE and BMSCE. He was awarded the best Guide Award (Yuvaratna) for two consecutive years (2014 and 2015).

Apart from discussions and vibrant deliberation with students, his works have been recognized widely & featured in many renowned magazines like Inside outside, Design detail etc. He has been the recipient of many awards including young architect by la&B and I Gen top 50 promising architects of 2020. He has also been featured on a radio interview "square foot" for casual conversation about design as well.
